

Student A

1. Answer your partner's questions and describe the photo.

Use these words and phrases:

It's a photo of... There is ... There are... In the foreground ... In the background ... On the left... On the right... I think ... I can see...

TIP:

Use Present Continuous to describe what's happening.

2. Ask your partner these questions about their photo:

*What is this photo of?
What can you see in the photo?
What can you see in the foreground?
What can you see in the background?*

*What is there on the left of the photo?
What is there on the right?
What is happening in the photo?
What else can you say about the photo?*

Listen to your partner's answers and ask additional questions.

1. Answer your partner's questions and describe the photo. Use these words and phrases:

It's a photo of... There is ... There are... In the foreground ... In the background ... On the left... On the right... I think ... I can see...

TIP:

Use Present Continuous to describe what's happening.

2. Ask your partner these questions about their photo:

*What is this photo of?
What can you see in the photo?
What can you see in the foreground?
What can you see in the background?*

*What is there on the left of the photo?
What is there on the right?
What is happening in the photo?
What else can you say about the photo?*

Listen to your partner's answers and ask additional questions.