

PART 1. Too/Either, So/Neither Do I

Exercise 1

Sentence Practice

Too/Either, So/Neither

- I like eating chocolate and I like ice cream too.
- I don't like eating chocolate, and I don't like ice cream either.
- I often go to the movies, and so does my cousin.
- I don't go to the movies very often, and neither does my cousin.

1. Use TOO in a positive sentence (to say that you DO the same thing). TOO is usually at the end of a sentence.
2. Use EITHER in a negative sentence (to say you DON'T DO the same thing). EITHER is usually at the end of a sentence.
3. Use SO in a positive sentence (to say you FEEL or DO the same way). Place SO before a helping verb.
4. Use NEITHER in a negative sentence (to say you FEEL the same or DON'T DO the same way). Place NEITHER before a helping verb.

Exercise 2

Sentence Building

Agree with the following statements by using too, either, so, and neither.

Example

- "I love cats." → "So do I!"
- "I don't like dogs."
- "I prefer Italian food over Spanish food."
- "I prefer reading books to watching movies."
- "I work out everyday."

- "I don't really exercise."
- "I'm a tidy person."
- "I'm not a very tidy person."
- "I can go for days without sleep."
- "I can't live without good food."

PART 2. PHRASAL VERBS

Get Along | Back Out | Go For | Find Out | Wear Down

Advanced

Exercise 1

Vocabulary

1. get along

Phrasal Verb

get ə'lə:ŋ

to have a friendly relationship with someone

I don't get along with my co-workers, so I feel quite isolated at work.

2. back out

Phrasal Verb

back out

to withdraw from something

They decided to back out of the contest because they didn't have time to prepare.

3. go for

Phrasal Verb

go for

to try to achieve something

They ended up in debt as a result of going for quick money.

4. find out

Phrasal Verb

find out

to discover or learn new information

My colleague just found out that he has been fired.

5. wear down

Phrasal Verb

wear down

to gradually make someone physically weaker, tired or less determined about something

At first, Charles didn't want to tell me the truth, but little by little, I wore him down.

Exercise 2

Dialogue Practice

Read the dialogue aloud with your partner.

Emma and K bump into each other in the school hallway.

Emma

Hey, K! You want to go to the movies after work? Chan, Lisulki and Yu Ah are coming as well.

K

I can't, I'm in hot water.

Emma

Why? What did you do this time?

K

I got into a fight with Chan. When boss found out, he got mad at us.

Emma

You two should get along better. Why did you get into a fight in the first place?

K

Emma

K

Emma

K

We started arguing about who's stronger. So we organized a small contest to test our strength, we were moving some furniture around and things like that. And we kept going for more difficult tasks.

And you couldn't decide who won?

Kind of. It was wearing us both down, but I was winning. Then, Chan suddenly decided to back out and said he had something else to do. And I didn't want to let him go before we decided who won. So, we started a fight.

You two should really stop fighting over stupid things like that.

Yeah, I know.

Exercise 3

Fill in the Blanks

Fill in the blanks with the correct phrasal verbs to complete the dialogue.

K and Emma are talking about K's work.

Emma

How's work, K?

K

Well, not so good, to tell the truth. All the stress is (1)__. I was offered a supervisor position, but now I'm thinking of (2) __ of the offer.

Emma

What? Why? I thought you were (3) __ the supervisor position. What happened?

K

I was, but that was before I (4) __ that a co-worker of mine had also applied for the position. He is a really nice guy, and he has a family. We (5) __ really well.

Emma

Well, I don't think you should say no, just to let someone else get the position. I'm sure he won't blame you if you accept it. You worked hard for it.

K

Yeah, I know, but it's not just that. I'm not even sure that I want the job. I think it might be too stressful.

Emma

Well, that's a different thing, then. Just try to take your time and figure out what you really want.

Exercise 4

Sentence Building

Create sentences using the following phrasal verbs.

- get along
- back out
- go for
- find out
- wear down